

WHAT A PROVIDER NEEDS TO KNOW

The Healthy Texas Women program offers women's health and family planning services to low-income women in Texas. To provide HTW services, you must be an existing Medicaid provider. In addition, a provider must complete the HTW certification process affirming that you do not perform or affiliate with an entity that performs or promotes elective abortions. For more information about provider enrollment, please visit www.tmhp.com.

WHAT SERVICES ARE COVERED?

The program offers a wide range of women's health and core family planning services that include but are not limited to:

- Contraceptive services for pregnancy prevention and birth spacing
- Health screenings and treatment, including diabetes, hyperlipidemia, and hypertension
- Sexually transmitted infection screening and treatment
- Pregnancy testing and counseling

For a full list of covered services, please visit www.HealthyTexasWomen.org.

HOW DO CLIENTS ENROLL?

Clients have more than one option to apply for HTW services by:

SUBMITTING an electronic application on www.HealthyTexasWomen.org

COMPLETING a paper application to fax or mail in (available on www.HealthyTexasWomen.org)

CALLING toll-free 2-1-1 or 1-877-541-7905 for assistance

Eligible clients receiving Medicaid for Pregnant Women benefits will be automatically enrolled in HTW once their coverage expires.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE?

The HTW program is for women who meet the following criteria:

- Age 15-44 (Clients ages 15-17 require parental consent)
- A U.S. citizen or qualified immigrant
- Texas resident
- Not pregnant
- Reported monthly household income does not exceed 200 percent of current Federal Poverty Level

Clients who do not meet the above criteria may be eligible to receive Family Planning Program services. For information and eligibility requirements, please visit the website at www.HealthyTexasWomen.org.
